

Privacy Policy

Resilie Laboratory Inc. (“Resilie”) respects your dignity and handles your personal information appropriately in compliance with the laws and regulations concerning the protection of personal information and the use of any data that relates to an identifiable individual in administrative procedures. This policy covers all personal information collected or obtained in the course of all business activities in which Resilie is involved, including personal information of applicants for employment with the Company and of all employees of the Company. In addition, we assign an information manager to each organization for the purpose of protecting personal information and to ensure the appropriate handling of personal information not only by us but also by our subcontractors.

Article 1. Acquisition and use of personal information

We will clarify the purpose of use and obtain your consent before acquiring and collecting your personal information, and acquire and handle it properly and appropriately by legal and fair means within the scope necessary to achieve the intended use. In addition, we will not use the information for purposes other than our intended use or provide or display the information to a third party without obtaining your consent, and we will take measures for this purpose.

Article 2. Compliance with Laws and Regulations Concerning Protection of Personal Information

We will comply with all applicable laws, regulations, national guidelines and other rules regarding the personal information we hold.

Article 3. management and protection of personal information

We will take reasonable security measures and periodically review and correct them to prevent risks such as unauthorized access, loss, destruction, falsification, and leakage of personal information.

Article 4: Response to Complaints and Consultations

If you request us to notify, disclose, correct, add, delete, stop using or provide, or erase the intended use of your personal information, or if we receive a complaint or consultation from you, we will respond appropriately.

Article 5. Continuous Improvement of the Human Information Protection Management System

We will clarify the person responsible for the protection of personal information, conduct internal training and education activities to ensure that all employees are aware of the proper handling of personal information, and continuously review and improve the management system.

Established: April 01, 2018

Revised: December 27, 2021

Resilie Laboratory Inc.

President and Representative Director Kaoru Ichikawa

Inquiries about our Privacy Policy and complaints and comments regarding personal information

2-33-4, Nishi-Shinbashi, Minato-ku, Tokyo 105-0003, Japan

Resilie Laboratory Inc.

Personal Information Complaints/Consultation Desk: